Conditions of Contract:

The conditions of S7 Airlines' Contract of Carriage, including, but not limited to, S7 Airlines' Conditions of Carriage and the Application Rules for your chosen S7 Airlines fare, form an integral part of this contract, and are included on your air ticket via links to the conditions (the Conditions of Carriage and the fare Application Rules), which you can find at any S7 Airlines ticket office or at S7 Airlines' website.

With regard to the entire journey, including any leg of it entirely within the country of departure or arrival, the provisions of the Warsaw Convention may apply if the journey's destination point, or a stopover point on the journey, is not in the country of departure. The Warsaw Convention may provide, inter alia, for different maximum limits of liability for the carrier with regard to the death or injury of a passenger, or loss or damage to a passenger's baggage, from those that apply to domestic flights.

See also 'Notification of limited liability to passengers on international flights', and 'Notification of limited liability for baggage'.

Please notice:

If you do not use the initial flight segment and do not cancel your ticket in advance, all subsequent segments including the return portion of the ticket will be canceled automatically. If you wish to cancel a seat, visit an S7 Airlines sales office or call customer service.

Please remember that your Contract of Carriage is considered concluded and becomes effective upon payment of your ticket full amount. This voucher is to confirm the fact of your ticket purchase for the specified flight of S7 Airlines.

For your flight you must carry on your person the originals of the passports of all the travelers (or for children, a birth certificate). For your convenience we recommend printing out this receipt. In some airports you might need the itinerary/receipt in order to pass through the airport screening.
